WHERE TO SPEND THE SUMMER. er Resorts Where Washingtonians Can

Find Pleasure and Comfort. nmer has revealed itself and folks have menced to think of the way to find most nfort during the heated term. Hundreds of sorts amid mountain and rural scenery and on the seashore invite the weary city man to of Mrs. Le Cointe and Mr. Frost, the victims of some and enjoy health-giving and cooling the 12th street tragedy, in order to accept bail breezes. The advertising columns of THE STAR afford much information to those who are considering the question as to where they shall go this summer. As a further assistance to its readers THE STAR publishes from day to day notices of resorts where one can find pleasure, comfort and reasonable rates. Deer Park and Oakland, the famous resorts on the crest of the Alleghanies, are 3,000 feet above tidewater. These beautiful mountain hotels are situated on the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and are easy of access from all parts of the country. The season opens June 15, and Manager De Shields, whose office is at Cumberland, will receive and answer communications. After June 10 mail will reach him at either of the places mentioned.

A desirable place for persons needing rest or treatment for nervous diseases and chronic ailments is the South Hingham Sanitarium, where beautiful scenery, home comforts and aperior table add to the numerous other attractions. This popular resort, which was es-tablished in 1872, is only two miles from the ea and can be reached from Boston in forty ninutes. Dr. J. B. De Beer's office is No. 62 Boylston street, Boston.

To persons desiring to spend a few weeks in a beautiful country Kee Mar offers many induce-ments. The hotel will reopen June 15. Hot and cold baths, a fine shaded lawn, mountain water and large rooms are all to be found there. Address J. M. Bell, Hagerstown, Md.

Splendid shade, fine buildings, good table, pure water and air are the inducements offered to persons desiring to summer at New Windsor, Md., a place which, it is claimed, has no malaria and no mosquitoes. Circulars can be had at Brentano's. A. M. Jelly, New Windsor, will furnish further information upon inquiry.

Fort Pendleton is in Garrett county, Md.,

and at Mrs. L. M. Deakins' hotel, 3,000 feet above the sea level, anglers and gunners as well as persons desiring a healthy location will find comfortable accommodations. Circulars can be obtained at THE STAR office. Historic Harper's Ferry offers many attractions to Washingtonians. It is easy of access and presents a mass of mountain scenery that is unsurpassed in this section. The places of nterest and beautiful drives are numerous and the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers afford good sport for lovers of bass fishing. The Hill Top House is 500 feet above the town and rivers, and Thomas S. Lovett, pro-prietor, promises a first-class table for $6 per week. The hotel is now open for guests. Mrs. M. Kolb's Morrel House, on Camp Hill, conducted in the very best manner by Miss Odyers and Mrs. E. M. Tooms. The Carlton is now open and its old friends are hastening to make arrangements for the season. Mrs. N. B. Wheeler, who so successfully conducted the hotel at Spring Lake Beach, has opened this season Berwick Lodge at Avon-on-the-Sea, N. J. The hotel faces on the beach, and under the skillful management of Mrs. Wheeler will offer every convenience and comfort to guests. Brexton Vilia is at Cape May, N. J., and has a splendid situation near the ocean. The hotel has large piazzas and sun parlor, with all modern conveniences. Cape May becomes more popular each year, and Brexton Villa becomes proportionately better. The house offers special rates to families for the season. Mrs. J. A. Myers is the proprietress. Congress Hall at Cape May is known the its details," is what Proprietor Fred. W. Evans mays of his hostelry at Luray—the Luray Inn—and thousands of visitors have come to the conclusion that Proprietor Evans has not misstated anything. A mile from the inn are the famous caverns. Fauquier White Sulphur Springs have been famous for many years and each ensuing season brings forth new attractions. The hotel has been thoroughly equipped and will be opened on June 15. John L. Mills, 1527 T street north-west, will send you circular and terms. After June 8 address him at the Springs, Warrenton, A letter sent to A. W. J., 71 East 87th street,

There are a number of newly-built cottages awaiting tenants at that place; cottages that have in and around them all comforts and amusements to be expected at a summer resort.

One of the most charming of the health and pleasure resorts of Pennsylvania is the Cold Springs Hotel, situated right in the heart of the mountains. The hotel, which is handsomely furnished and fitted with all the requisites of a first-class hostelry, will open May 30. The water is unsurpassed and is highly recommended for its medicinal qualities. There are also pleasant walks, boating, fishing and other good points that may be learned of by addressing F. NO BAIL YET.

Mrs. Le Cointe and Mr. Frost Reported to Be Not Out of Danger. Arrangements had been made between Asistant District Attorney Clagett and Lawyer Campbell Carrington to have a report made to the Police Court this morning of the condition for the prisoner if possible.

When Judge Miller's attention was called to the case this morning Mr. Clagett produced a for the certificate from the attending physician, as excavation is necessary, which will be greatly follows:

"June 3, 1891, 8 a.m.

"This is to certify that Mrs. Le Cointe and Mr. C. C. Frost are in a favorable condition, but neither one is out of danger.

"W. Sinclair Bowen, M.D."

Mr. Clagett said that the case had been set for today simply to hear of the condition of the injured persons, in order to determine the question of bail, and in view of the certificate he thought that nothing could be done.

The case went over until a different certificate is sent in. cate is sent in.

THE M'CAULLY-HERBERT MARRIAGE. The marriage of Miss Alice Herbert, daughter of Col. Arthur Herbert of Seminary Hill, and Mr. Harry McCapley will take place tonight at St. Paul's Church and will be a society event. It was at first announced that the wedding would be at the chapel of the Virginia Theological Seminary, but later arrangements fix the place of the nuptials at St. Paul's Church. Rev. Dr. Norton will unite the happy pair in the bonds of matrimony, and after receiviag the congratulations of their friends they will leave for their bridal tour. Miss Herbert's family has been most prominent in this section of the country since its settlement by white people. The old stone mansion in which Gen. Braddock was entertained was the family seat. Her father commanded the 17th (Alexandria) regiment in the late war and is among the most esteemed gentlemen of Virginia. Mr. Harry McCauloy, the happy man, is a gentleman connected with the Bank of the Republic in Washington and is held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends.

HAGERSTOWN NEWS. Good Work on the Canal-The Big Dunkards'

Meeting-Notes. oe of The Evening Star. HAGERSTOWN, June 2, 1891.

The work upon the aqueduct of the Chesa peake and Ohio canal at Williamsport is nearly inished and by the end of the week the canal at that place will be ready for the water. With the exception of the fourteen-mile level between Williamsport and Hancock everything is ready opening of navigation. At that level facilitated after the introduction of water at Cumberland by the aid of the scow.

Couples matrimonially inclined continue to find their way from a distance to Hagerstown. Among those who have been been made "man and wife" this week, with various ministers officiating, are: Mr. Charles F. Shipplette and Miss Bessie V. Bauserman of Rockingham county, Va.; Mr. F. T. Brubaker of Five Forks, Pa., and Miss Vertie L. Fraver of Marion, Pa.; Mr. Irvin G. Snyder and Miss Virginia Stover of Chambersburg, Pa., and Mr. Daniel F. Slick of Leitersburg, this county, and Miss Annie J. Entler of this city.

THE SUSPENDED CLERGYMEN. They Deny That They Have Been

Showing Contempt. In response to the charge that they have shown contempt in preaching since their suspension Revs. A. W. McClurkin, O. B. Mulligan, Hugh W. Reed, W. L. C. Sampson, E. M. Milligan and J. R. J. Milligan appeared before the Reformed Presbyterian synod yesterday in Pittsburg in the order named. They all denied that they had been in contempt. They had not preached in Reformed Presbyterian churches, but had spoken from the pulpits of other denominations. They did not do this out of contempt for the Pittsburg presbytery.

Rev. O. B. Milligan touched every heart when he said he had not preached from his own pulpit, but had prayed with the sick, comforted the dying and buried the dead of his own congregation.

This formality gone through with the synod now proceeded to the trial, or rather consideration of the appeals from the action of the Pittsburg synod. Rev. A. W. McClurkin was first to of the best type, facing directly on the ocean.

Calling in the Bonds. Secretary Foster yesterday afternoon issued a circular calling in the 4% per cent bonds of July 14, 1870, and January 20, 1871, and fixing September 2, 1891, as the day of payment. The circular, the issue of which was foreshadowed in yesterday's STAR, is as follows:

By virtue of the authority conferred by law upon the Secretary of the Treasury notice is hereby given that the principal and accrued interest of such of the 4½ per cent bonds issued under the acts of July 14, 1870, and January 20, 1871, as may be outstanding on the 2d day of September, 1891, will be paid at the treasury of the United States, in the city of Washington, D.C., on that day, and that the interest of said bonds will then cease.

D.C., on that day, and that the interest of said bonds will then cease.

Suggestions have been made on the part of the holders of some of these bonds of a desire to extend the payment thereof, at the option of the United States, at the rate of 1 or 1½ per cent per annum, and the Secretary of the Treasury will hereafter consider whether the acceptance of such offers, or any of them, will be profitable to the government, and in that event reserves the right to except such bonds for this call.
